Greater Pittsburgh

OBJECTIVE

To recognize and honor women from the greater Pittsburgh area who have lived out YWCA's mission – personally and professionally – by creating a community that advances education, opportunity, and equity regardless of gender, race, or background.

AWARD CATEGORIES

Although an individual may be nominated for her achievement in more than one category, she will be recognized in one category only; posthumous awards will be considered:

- Business & Professional Services: Business women, entrepreneurs, professional service providers, or consultants in fields such as law; finance; design; business systems; marketing; or personal services.
- Civic & Community: Community volunteers or women from the public and/or non-profit sectors.
- Creative Arts: Administrators, performers, or educators.
- Education: Instructors, administrators, or women in supportive roles.
- Health & Human Services: Clinical or administrative health professionals; human services professionals, administrators, or support persons.
- Science & Technology: Scientists, mathematicians, computer professionals, or engineers.
- Young Leader: Women between 25 and 40 years of age who have demonstrated exceptional leadership early in their career.

NOMINATIONS

Nominations from individuals, businesses, professional groups or neighborhood and community organizations are invited. Self-nominations are accepted, and you are welcome to consult the person you are nominating in order to submit detailed and comprehensive information.

JUDGING

Selecting the winners is the responsibility of the YWCA's 2019 Tribute to Women Leadership Awards Selection Committee, comprised of a diverse group of professionals representing the award categories. Using the categories above, the Selection Committee determines the number and distribution of awards annually. The decisions of the Selection Committee are final.
